For Immediate Release:

WEAVER NAMED OUTSTANDING SENIOR

CHARLESTON – Sarah Weaver, daughter of Ralph and Judy Weaver of Ashkum, has been named “Outstanding Senior” by the University Union Board at Eastern Illinois University.

Weaver is a senior communication disorders and sciences major and will be graduating with University and Departmental Honors May 5. She will be attending Eastern for graduate school in the summer to become a speech-language pathologist.

The University Union’s Outstanding Senior Award is given to a senior who has been nominated by an Eastern administrator, faculty or staff member. The nominee must have a minimum cumulative grade point average of 3.0 and demonstrate significant university and community service.

Weaver was awarded the Livingston C. Lord Scholarship last spring and recently received the first Frances Meyer Hampton Scholarship issued by the Graduate School.
